Royal Academy of Music.

THIS Royal and National Institution was founded in the year 1822 through the patriotic exertions of John Fane (Lord Burghersh), eleventh Earl of Westmorland, and commenced its public work in 1823 under the direct patronage of His Majesty King George IV., whose interest in its welfare was manifested by an annual subscription of one hundred guineas. His Majesty further evinced his interest in the School by granting it a Royal Charter on 23rd June, 1830. His successors, King William IV., Queen Victoria and King Edward VII., were also Patrons of the Academy, and continued the pecuniary contribution to its funds.

While Prince and Princess of Wales, His late Majesty King Edward VII. and Queen Alexandra conferred the highest distinction upon the Academy by graciously attending, in person, the distribution of prizes in the year 1897, and the present Sovereign, King George V., with his Consort, Queen Mary, have recently indicated their interest in the institution by heading the list of Royal Patrons.

On the lamented death of the President, H.R.H. the Duke of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha, in 1900, the Academy was honoured by the gracious acceptance of the Presidentship by H.R.H. the Duke of Connaught and Strathearn.

The objects of the Academy, as set forth in its Charter, are "to promote the cultivation of the science of music, and to afford facilities for attaining perfection in it by assisting with general instruction all persons desirous of acquiring a knowledge thereof," and by a Supplementary Charter granted 29th November, 1910, the privileges of the Institution were extended so as "to do all and all manner of acts and things whatsoever and wheresoever which shall be necessary for or conducive to the effecting or carrying out the objects of the Royal Academy of Music or which the Board of Directors thereof shall in their discretion consider necessary."

During the ninety years of its existence, the Academy has laboured steadfastly to achieve these objects. Its work in the cause of musical education has been carried on, with the help of many eminent musicians and lovers of music, by its Principals, Dr. William Crotch, 1823; Mr. Cipriani Potter, 1832; Mr. Charles Lucas, 1859; Sir William Sterndale Bennett, 1866; Sir George A. Macfarren, 1875; and Sir Alexander Campbell Mackenzie, 1888. That its work has been successful is attested by the fact that starting with only twenty students in 1823, the number now under training is over 500, and that of the thousands who have received their musical training within its walls, a very large number have risen to positions of eminence and distinction and have extended the good work, not only throughout Great Britain, but to the Colonies and India.

The curriculum embraces the following subjects :—

ELEMENTS OF MUSIC.	ENSEMBLE PLAYING (Chamber Music).
HARMONY AND COUNTERPOINT.
COMPOSITION.	CONCERTED MUSIC (Instrumental and Vocal).
SOLO SINGING.
SIGHT SINGING AND MUSICAL DICTATION.	ORCHESTRAL PLAYING.
CHORAL SINGING.	MILITARY MUSIC.
CHOIR TRAINING.	DICTION AND ELOCUTION.
PIANOFORTE.	OPERATIC SINGING AND ACTING.
PIANOFORTE ACCOMPANIMENT.	DRAMA.
HARP. ORGAN.	DEPORTMENT.
VIOLIN. VIOLA.	FENCING AND PHYSICAL DRILL.
VIOLONCELLO.	DANCING.
DOUBLE BASS.	STAGE DANCING.
WIND INSTRUMENTS.	ITALIAN.
	FRENCH. GERMAN.
OTHER ORCHESTRAL INSTRUMENTS.

Any one of the above-named subjects may be adopted as principal study. In addition, each pupil has a second study and attends classes for Elements of Music, Harmony, Sight Reading, and (if a vocalist) Diction. Every pupil also has the advantage of practising with the Orchestra, and, if an instrumentalist, of playing in the Orchestra and the Ensemble Classes.

Fifty-four Scholarships and Exhibitions are in active operation, and thirty-three prizes are competed for annually by the students.

At the Annual Examination in July, Bronze and Silver Medals, and also Certificates of Merit, are awarded to those students who reach the necessary standard of proficiency.

A special course of studies is arranged for students whose principal subject is the Drama or Dramatic Elocution.

The academic year begins at Michaelmas and ends in the following July. It is divided into three Terms, usually of twelve weeks each, with holidays at Christmas and Easter.

All students are taught with the view to the possibility of their becoming teachers, and, as a mark of particular distinction, advanced students are appointed sub-professors, and are required to give instruction in the Academy under the supervision of their own professors.

There is a general lending library for the benefit of the students. It contains a large and choice collection of ancient and modern music, and has been enriched by a number of orchestral scores (the gift of Messrs. Novello & Co.), and more recently, by the gift of some 200 volumes, chiefly consisting of old church music and modern operas of the French school. This was the bulk of the library formed by the late Arthur Prendergast, and it includes nearly the entire vocal and instrumental works of Charles Gounod, ballets by Delibes, Widor, etc.; operas by Rubinstein, Meyerbeer, Wagner, Mozart, Gluck, and many others. The church music comprises, besides the Masses of Haydn, Mozart, and Cherubini, many volumes of anthems and services by the great English church composers.

On leaving the Academy, pupils who have studied there for more than one year may undergo an examination. If the examination prove satisfactory, they receive a Certificate of their qualification. Students who show special merit and ability in this examination, or who distinguish themselves in the profession after leaving the Academy, may be elected Associates of the Academy, and are thereby entitled to the use after their names of the initials A.R.A.M.

Evidence of the progress made by the students is given at the Fortnightly Concerts held during Term time in the Academy, and by Public Chamber and Orchestral Concerts given twice every Term in such Metropolitan Concert Hall as the Committee may select. Friends of students and subscribers to the Institution receive tickets for these concerts.

From time to time, since the year 1828, public performances of operas have been given by the students, both at the Academy and in Metropolitan theatres. The list for the last ten years comprises selections from fifty-six operas, and the performance of six complete works.

An examination, independent of Academy teaching, of Musical Composers, Performers, and Teachers, is held at the Academy twice a year—viz., during the Summer and Christmas Vacations. The fee payable is £5 5s., and successful candidates thereat are created by the Directors Licentiates of the Royal Academy of Music, with the exclusive right to the use after their names of the initials L.R.A.M., and receive Diplomas, signed by the Principal and by one of the Directors, to the effect that they are judged to be fully qualified for the branches of the musical profession in which, respectively, they have been examined.

An examination of persons who are, or desire to become, engaged in Voice Culture and the Teaching of Class Singing for Children is now established. The said examination is held at the Royal Academy of Music, and is open to all persons, irrespective of age, and whether educated at the Academy or elsewhere. The examination is held twice a year, during the Academy Summer and Christmas Vacations. The fee payable is £3 3s., and successful candidates receive a certificate of proficiency. As a preparation for the above-named examination, courses of lectures are given at the Academy periodically. These lectures are open to students and non-students on payment of a small fee.

A Special Training Course for Teachers has been instituted to meet the increased and increasing demands made upon the teachers of to-day, with the purpose of enabling those persons already advanced as performers to obtain that special equipment which is now being recognised as essential to the proper and adequate discharge of the duties of a teacher. It has been designed with the further object of showing the extreme importance of General Musicianship (comprising Ear-training, a knowledge of the methods of dealing with School Class-Singing, and the practical application of Harmony-Study) in relation to all work on the instrumental side (see special prospectus enclosed herewith).

Throughout the period extending from March, 1823, to July, 1911, the work of the Academy was carried on at Tenterden Street, Hanover Square, beginning with one house and adding others as the number of pupils increased, until at last six houses were absorbed and no further extension could be made. The need for more commodious and more suitable premises having become urgent, the directors secured a new site in the Marylebone Road, and the foundation stone of the new building was laid by Lord Strathcona on 14th July, 1910. The building is now completed, and the work of the Academy was transferred to it in time to commence the new session at Michaelmas, 1911. The building was formally opened by His Royal Highness Prince Arthur of Connaught on Saturday, 22nd June, 1912. The new Academy is central and easily reached; it is near the termini of three main lines (viz., Great Western, Great Central and London and North Western Railways), and is conveniently situated also for access by various "Tubes" and omnibus services.

Though they could not forsake the old home of the Academy without feelings of regret, the Governing Bodies feel much gratification in being able to provide a building specially designed for the work of the School and affording the professors and students ample accommodation for carrying on their studies under better conditions than were obtainable in the old building.

CONSTITUTION AND GOVERNMENT.

The Academy is incorporated by Royal Charters, granted 23rd June, 1830, and 29th November, 1910, and, as provided therein, is governed by a President, four Vice-Presidents, Board of Directors, Committee of Management, Chairman, and Treasurer, all of whom are elected from among the members of the body corporate. Acting under these are the House Committee, the Principal, and the executive officials.

SCHOLARSHIPS AND EXHIBITIONS.

The holder of any Scholarship or Exhibition is ineligible for future competitions for that particular Scholarship or Exhibition.

There are fifty-four Scholarships and Exhibitions in active operation at present. They are obtainable by competition only, and, except where the contrary is stated, both Students and Non-students are eligible. As a rule, they are tenable for three years; but the conditions of competition and tenure vary in accordance with the wishes of the respective founders. Full particulars and entry forms are obtainable on application to the Secretary about ten weeks prior to the competitions. The holder of a Scholarship or Exhibition is, during the tenure of the same, ineligible to compete for any other Scholarship or Exhibition. The holder of a Scholarship is subject to periodical examination, and if satisfactory proof of progress be not given, the Committee may declare the Scholarship vacant and hold a

PAYING STUDENTS.

Ordinary Paying Students are admitted at the commencement of each Term and Half-Term. Before entering, they are examined by the Principal or Curator.

This Examination is in no sense competitive, and persons are accepted as Students provided they give evidence of careful preliminary training or of sufficient natural ability. The objects of the Examination are (1) to enable the Principal to judge as to the general fitness of a candidate for acceptance as a Student; (2) to ascertain the degree of proficiency already attained by the candidate; and (3), if accepted, to make the necessary arrangements for Professors and Classes.

The fee for this Examination is 1 Guinea, which amount should be forwarded, with the printed form of application for admission (enclosed herein), at least three days before the date of examination.

If the applicant become a Student, this fee is considered as part payment of the entrance fee of 2 Guineas.

The appointment of Students to the various Professors is left absolutely to the discretion of the Principal, who, however, as far as possible, endeavours to meet the wishes of Students in this respect.

Students are not admitted for a shorter period than three Terms, nor, except as stated in the following paragraph, for less than the ordinary curriculum.

A limited number of Wind Instrument Students are received for a modified course of study at a proportionately lower fee. (See p. 14.)

To obtain the highest awards of the Academy, a course of at least three years' study is requisite.

At least fourteen days' notice of the removal of a Student is required.

Failing the due receipt of such notice by the Secretary the fees for half a Term shall be payable.

There is no limit to the age of Paying Students.

It is open to any person to assist Students by paying the whole or a portion of their fees, by subscribing to the Fund established for that purpose (see p. 76), or by founding Exhibitions, &c.

Persons residing at a distance from London may obtain information and advice respecting the Academy from any of the Honorary Local Representatives. (See List, pp. 67 to 70.)

THE METROPOLITAN EXAMINATION.

An Examination, independent of Academy teaching, of Musical Composers, Performers and Teachers, is held at the Academy twice a year—viz., during the Summer and Christmas Vacations. Successful Candidates thereat are created by the Directors Licentiates of the Royal Academy of Music, with the exclusive right to the use after their names of the initials L.R.A.M., and receive Diplomas, signed by the Principal and by one of the Directors, to the effect that they are judged to be fully qualified for the branches of the musical profession in which, respectively, they have been examined.

During the last ten years 10,440 Candidates have presented themselves for this examination, of whom an average of 29·65 per cent. have passed, as shown by the following figures :—

The Syllabus of the L.R.A.M. Examination is published annually at Easter, and will be sent on application at that time or after. Each syllabus applies to the Examination held at the following Michaelmas and Christmas.

An Examination of persons who are, or desire to become, engaged in Voice Culture and the Teaching of Class Singing for Children is now established. The said Examination is held at the Royal Academy of Music, and is open to all persons, irrespective of age, and whether educated at the Academy or elsewhere. The Examination is held twice a year during the Academy summer and Christmas Vacations. The fee payable is £3 3s., and successful candidates receive a certificate of proficiency. As a preparation for the above-named Examination, courses of Lectures are given at the Academy periodically. These Lectures are open to students and non-students on payment of a small fee.

An Examination is held in September of those Students who adopted the Special Training Course for Teachers. Those who are successful therein receive the distinction of Associateship and are entitled to the use after their names of the letters A.R.A.M.
